DENMAN THOMPSON BEATEN.

Lakeside had its usual large attendance yesterday and the racing was good and clean cut throughout. The track was lightning fast and two of the records for this course were lowered.

The principal attraction of the afternoon's sport was the fourth race, a dash of one and three-sixteenths miles for three-year-olds and upward. Of the three that started Denman Thompson, despite the fact that so light a boy as J. Hicks had the mount, was made a 2 to 5 favorite, while as good 'as 8 to 5 could be had on Rolling Boer with Coburn up. Frangible, the rank outsider, was only nibbled at by the pikers. To a good start Frangible jumped into the lead and held it under suzerainty up to the last eighth where Rolling Boer and Denman Thompson closed up on him. The race now resolved itself into a merry struggle between the latter two but in the closing strides the superior jockeyship of Coburn began to assert itself and he threw Rolling Boer under the wire winner by a neck in a desperate drive. Denman Thompson best Frangible six lengths for second place. The latter tired and quit badly when a furlong out but ran a good race at that considering the company he was stacked up against. He is good and ready to run a good race over a soft track. Rolling Boer's victory was simply due to Coburn's cleverness as with equal jockeys Denman Thompson would have proved an easy victor. The time, 2:01½, was eleven-twentieths of a second faster than the previous track mark.

Burnie Bunton repeated her good race of last Monday, beating Money Muss with consummate ease and running the six furlongs in 1:13½, which is seven-twentieths of a second faster than the previous track mark. After a delay of ten minutes at the post the flag dropped to a good start with Sea Queen in the lead, closely pressed by Money Muss. The two ran as one horse until just bending for home, where Sea Queen had enough and fell away beaten. Here Coburn, who had been lying a close third with Burnie Bunton, brought her up fast, and after a short drive with Money Muss in the last eighth she drew away without much trouble and won easily by two and a half lengths. Money Muss finished four lengths in front of The Pride for second place. The latter was always outrun and did not show to his best form. Sea Queen showed a clever turn of speed for four furlongs. Tom Kingsley was handicapped by a poor ride and was badly outrun for the entire distance. He can do much better and his race should not be taken seriously. The other three might just as well have remained in their stalls, as they were all hopelessly beaten off from start to finish.

The day's opener proved an easy race for Wing Dance, which negotiated the six furlongs in 1:16½. It was about as poor a field of two-year-olds as could be brought together. Little Emmy rushed to the front at the start and held a good lead up to the last eighth, where she tired. Along in here Wing Dance, which had been running in fifth place, moved up fast and, passing into the lead, won easily by four lengths from Dulcimer, which beat Lucy Locket a head for second place. Coburn brought up the last named with a rush in the closing strides. She would have been second in another stride. The Rabbit came strongly in the last sixteenth. She runs best in the mud. Herse had enough when a furlong out.

The long-distance affair at one and a quarter miles was simply an exercise gallop for Searcher, which laid within easy call of Ben Chance, the leader, until nearing the last eighth post. At this point Coburn called on him and he came away with all ease, winning under slight restraint by a length. Ben Chance finished seven in front of Sarilla for second place. The former ran by far the best race he has shown in some time. Uncle Tom showed sudden improvement and bears watching from now on. Joe Collins ran well for six furlongs. Little Elkin's race was not what he is capable of. Schwartz on Tammany Chief was unable to hold the horse's head up and he was beaten off from start to finish.

Eva Rice proved to be much the best in the fifth race, a dash of one mile for four-year-olds and upward. Off none too well and sharply cut off at the first turn Davison had to ride her all around her field to get clear sailing. She got to the front after a severe shaking up about the end of the first quarter and simply played with her field, thereafter winning in a canter by three lengths from Prairie Dog, which finished one and one half in front of Helen Paxton for second place. Prairie Dog ran to his best form and while he was easily the best of the others had no chance to beat the winner. Helen Paxton finished stoutly and is in good shape just now. Precursor, which is thick winded, ran well to the last quarter but the strong wind that blew up the stretch stopped him. Zacatoco showed well for six furlongs.

Rasselas was supposed to be a good thing in the last race and was backed heavily by the talent and a select few, but the best he could do was to run second, Frank M. at the weights proving to be the best. At flag dip Rice whipped the latter into the lead by the time the first turn had been reached and he remained there to the end, winning none too handily by a length from Rasselas, which finished five in front of Linden Ella. Frank M. was tiring rapidly in the closing strides, but had enough left to reach the wire in front. Rasselas finished strongly, but could not quite get up. He was interfered with somewhat at the first turn. Guy H., well backed, ran a dull race. He appeared stiff and sore when going to the post. Miss Liza ran well for six furlongs. Moroni had enough when entering the last quarter.

EASTERN RACING CONDITIONS.

With the close of the meeting at Morris Park came another immense crowd on Saturday, which further showed how popular racing has become in the east under the able management of the Jockey Club. The local racing associations have never enjoyed such prosperity before. The attendance has been extraordinarily large all the season. Some have attributed the cause to the fact that at various times the poolrooms have had to close up, but it is more probable that the boom in racing was due to the presence and outlay of such men as William C. Whitney, Clarence H. Mackay, J. B. Haggin, A. Featherstone, the Meers, Keene, August Belmont and others who, by their patronage, have succeeded in placing the sport of kings on the highest plane in the history of the turf in this country. Then again the public's confidence in the honesty of racing has been greatly increased, though it must be admitted that there have been incidents during the year that have looked glaringly bad and yet have been allowed to go unpunished.

So little scandal has come to light that the public has had no chance to display its suspicions, and has, therefore, gone to the races day in and day out, convinced that the horses have been, for the most part, running on the level. Enjoying the public's confidence, therefore, the racing associations have kept a sharp lookout for underhand methods and have, by this vigilance, probably kept many individuals, prone to double dealing, decidedly in line.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. St. Finnan finished strongly, is in rare form and handled his weight in game fashion. Otis ran a brilliant race and has evidently partly regained his good form. Lady of the Valley and Redpath finished fast. Both got bad starts and had to make up much ground. Potente lacked in early speed and consequently unable to maintain a good position in the race, was much bothered on the backstretch. Flora Pomona ran poorly.

Scratched—28951 Unmarked, 122; 28966 Roxane, 120; 28829 Isia, 114; 29012 Mary Worth, 105; 28963 Lacy Sterling, 102; 289702 Trump, 98.

Went to post at 2:50. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Dr. Riddle beat the gate, was fresh and good and easily held the lead throughout. Handicapper was easily the best of the others. Mercer's good race confirms his improved form. Trebor was pocketed in the last sixteenth but is in extra good form. Astor will not extend himself on this track. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—29008 Disturber, 105; 28833 Fonslee, 105; 29010 Lee King, 102.

Winner—Ch. f. by Julien—Barcarola.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving. Babouche got a lucky start and, being cleverly handled, stuck to her work gamely in the stretch. Andy Williams finished fast under a strong ride. Ben Howard showed startling improvement. Octoroon received a timid ride and was shut off and interfered with several times and is at great disadvantage in big fields. Longlove closed a big gap and was going strongly at the end, is a fine looker and very promising. Flying Buttress can do much better.

Scratched—28481 Frank McKee, 112; 28575 Deadly Night Shade, 105; 29009 Extinguisher, 105; 28673 Shandonfield, 102.

Prince Richard got away badly, but ran a game race and has always favored this track. Bowen was poorly ridden and should have been second. Alard went moderately well for six furlongs.

EASTERN RACING CONDITIONS.

There have been but three instances of alleged wrongdoing this year that have come under the official eyes of the Jockey Club stewards. The case of Jockey Combs, who pulled Wax Taper and was ruled off, was the first offense against the integrity of the sport. Then came W. C. Whitney's charges against Jockey Shaw for a negligent ride on Blue Girl in the Great Filly Stakes and the nominal punishment of a three days' suspension inflicted by the stewards. Last, but not least, was the unexpected suspension of Jockey Michaels for "alleged fraudulent practices."

Within the past two weeks there have been several instances of in-and-out running that have surprised all turfmen. The defeat of A. Featherstone's Lamp O'Lee on Wednesday when he was favorite, followed by his easy victory on Thursday at liberal odds, was one instance not likely to be forgotten, though Mr. Featherstone is held blameless by a majority of racegoers. The victory of Gold Heels in the Woodlawn Vase race on Saturday after his shockingly poor race against Blues and Morningside on Thursday was another instance worthy of comment. Just why Gold Heels showed such a remarkable change of form nobody will know, except those directly identified with the colt's work on the track. Some turfmen yesterday maintained that Gold Heels was partially beaten on Thursday, because when the barrier was let go the Bard colt was all tangled up, while Blues and Morningside got away flying. On the other hand the statement was made that Gold Heels got a poor ride from Odom and was purposely manipulated to fool both the public and the layers. Suffice it to say that whatever was the cause the fact remains that Gold Heels on Thursday at a mile and an eighth was merely a selling plater with no stamina, while Gold Heels on Saturday at two miles and a quarter was a stake horse possessed of wonderful staying qualities and speed.

On Thursday Gold Heels was an even money favorite while on Saturday as much as 4 to 1 could have been obtained against him. It would seem that such glaring instances of in-and-out running should be noticed in an official way if only to find out that there has been no wrong. But to allow them to go by the board only serves to increase the drift of the comment among turfmen that "if you are slick enough to get away with it, well and good!"

Those who watch in-and-out performances have not forgotten the victory of Alcedo in the Suburban Handicap when he ran the distance in record time and won at the liberal odds of 10 to 1. All sorts of stories were in circulation at the time about the methods that had been used in handling the colt, some persons going so far as to say that in his previous races he had worn leather boots to be discarded for plates when he ran in the Suburban. But there was no actual proof of wrong-doing and as the colt's trainer told everybody he knew before the race that Alcedo had worked so fast in private that he would win "sure," there was no ground for a charge of sharp practice.—New York Sun.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

This is the last day of racing at St. Louis for the year 1901. Presumably the majority of the horses now at the Fair Grounds will be taken to Louisville. It is understood that the racing season at St. Louis has been reasonably successful in view of all the adverse circumstances growing out of the so-called war with the Western Jockey Club. Perhaps the situation may be cleared up by the opening of the racing season of 1902 so that owners who could not afford to race there this year can do so next year. At any rate it is to be hoped so.

"Bob" McMillan, owner of Lyrer Bell, and P. Gorman, owner of Erema, have placed $1,000 each in the hands of Secretary Hopper as a wager on the match race which has been arranged for Saturday at Latonia between the horses mentioned. They will carry equal weights, 104 pounds. Knight will ride Lyrer Bell and Jackson Erema. The race will be at six furlongs and will be decided between the third and fourth races. There is but one condition and that is that the track be fast.

George C. Bennett's splendid colt Abe Frank is reported to be seriously sick at Memphis. It is doubtful if a better two-year-old was raced in the United States this year and it is to be sincerely hoped that he will recover without impairment of his great speed and stamina.

A carload of horses reached Oakland last Friday from Hawthorne. Charles Sanders, brought along Headwater and Legal Maxim Linnell had Goal Runner, Olinthus, Pencil Me and one other in the car. He also brought along Max Bendix for Dan Lynch.

Redfern, the lightweight jockey, will ride for Burns & Waterhouse in California this season and Spencer will be their heavy weight. Bullman will probably be a free lance. O'Connor left New York for the coast Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO RACING.

Racing will begin at San Francisco and Louisville Saturday next, bringing about the unusual feature of five different tracks being the theater of active operations in the month of November. The California campaign of 1901-2 will open with a month of racing at Oakland, with a similar period to follow at Tanforan, if in the meantime permission to race at Ingleside has not been secured. If the supervisors remove the interdiction from the latter fine track it is to be presumed it will be given the preference over Tanforan because of its much better location, it being readily accessible by several lines of street cars as well as by the Southern Pacific. It would be sure to draw a greater holiday season attendance than either of the other two tracks.

The character of the entries to the stakes which closed October 5 assures that San Francisco patrons of racing are to enjoy a season of sport that will compare favorably with that of the past few years. Some few owners prominent in racing operations last year, Sam Hildreth and Pat Dunne for instance, have not sent their horses on for the coming campaign but others new to coast racing have taken their places so on the whole the prospect is for horses in abundance and the best of racing at San Francisco as well as at the other big center of winter racing, New Orleans. The star event of the racing Saturday will be the Opening Handicap, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward for a guaranteed stake of $1,500 for which the entries and weights are as follows:

Winner—B. f. by Blue Wing—Gallop.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Wing Dance finished fast through the last eighth and was easily the best. Dulcimer ran well, but tired rapidly in the last sixteenth and would have lost second place to Lucy Locket in another stride. The latter finished with a rush, but just a trifle too late. Little Emy showed a good turn of speed for five furlongs. The Rabbit finished well. She runs best in the mud. Herse showed early speed.

Overweights—Lucy Locket, 84 pounds.

Wing Dance, show, 4 to 5. Dulcimer, show, 1 to 2. Lucy Locket, show, out.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Searcher was well ridden and came away without any trouble in the last eighth when called upon. Ben Chance ran in much improved form but had no chance to beat the winner. Sarilla tired badly in the last eighth. Uncle Tom showed a sudden improvement. Joe Collins ran well for six furlongs. Little Elkin's race was below his true form. Tammany Chief ran poorly and can do better.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rancocas—Dead Cinch.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Burnie Barton moved up fast just before entering the stretch and after a short drive with Money Muss along about the paddock gate drew away easily and won under restraint. Money Muss did his best and ran right to the mark. The Pride was always outrun. Sea Queen showed speed, but began to tire rapidly after the first half mile had been run. Tom Kingsley under a weak ride was never a contender. He can do much better.

Scratched—(29006) Federal, 112.

Corrected weights—Sea Queen, 95.

Winner—B. c. by Dutch Roller—Woodranee.

Went to post at 3:25. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second easily. Rolling Boer ran a good race, but won simply because Coburn easily outrode Hicks. Denman Thompson finished fast and strongly, but Hicks was of little help to him. Coburn's vigorous ride on the winner proving too much for him to contend with. Frangible ran well for a little over a mile.

Overweights—Rolling Boer, 14 pounds.

Winner—Ch. m. by Massetto—Miss Rye.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Eva Rice was in a soft spot, ran all around her field in the first quarter and afterward simply cantered home. Prairie Dog finished fast and was the best of the others. Helen Paxton closed up rapidly in the last eighth and ran in much improved form. Precursor is thick winded and the strong breeze that blew down the stretch stopped him. Zacatosa ran fairly well for six furlongs.

Winner—B. g. by Prophecy—Levity.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Frank M. was in fine form and simply wirehoisted his field with early speed. He was tiring at the end, but had enough left to reach the wire first. Rasselas closed up resolutely in the last eighth, but could not quite get up. Linden Ella came strongly at the end. Guy H. had enough after four furlongs had been run. He seemed stiff and sore when going to the post. Miss Liza tired in the final furlong.

 Winner--Ch. c. by Meddler--Sylvabelle.
 Went to post at 4:05. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Reformer, lucky and finely ridden, was waited with to the stretch, where he went to the front like a flash, was much the best and is a coming good one. Bruff showed much speed and hung on well. Connecticut finished fast and showed great improvement. Si Ah was nearly left, but closed a big gap and was easing up in the last furlong. Meistersinger ran poorly and is evidently of moderate caliber. Little Arrow was short and will improve.
 Scratched--29037 Hot, 112; 28649 Ohio Girl, 109; 29069 High Carnival, 109; 28071 Chickadee, 109; Tim D. Jr., 112.

 Winner--B. g. by Prince Royal--Tartar.
 Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Oom Paul led throughout under a stiff pull and was much the best at the weights. Advance Guard beat the gate, but was outrun to the stretch, where he finished in his usual fast and game fashion. Champagne ran like a stayer and showed fine form. Sister Juliet has always shown a dislike for a long route, yet went well for seven furlongs. Peninsula was a good colt sadly mishandled and messed about and should have been fighting for place money.
 Scratched--29010 Rafaelo, 128; 29056 Redpath, 123; (29069) Major Daingerfield, 91; 28933 Lombre, 83; 28898 Lady Sterling, 88; 29056 Flora Pomona, 88.

 Winner--B. c. by The Commoner--Leora.
 Went to post at 2:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Leflare caught Sister Sarah in the closing strides and Troxler outfinished Beauchamp. Sister Sarah was put to too much use in the early stages. She raced Ogle to defeat in the first half, but the effort caused her to tire when pressed hard at the finish. Sting was shy on speed in the first part of the race, but saved ground in the stretch by hugging the rail. Ogle quit badly. Clarena showed early speed.
 Scratched--29046 Lillian M., 104.
